

in association with

Pathological Society

Difficulties With and Solutions to Pathologists' Engagement with Research

Actions Emerging from the NCRI Task Force Report

To be held on Friday 3rd July 2009,
at the Argyle Room, Mercure Holland House Hotel Cardiff, Cardiff, CF24 0DD.

FINAL PROGRAMME

12.45 – 13.15	Registration and refreshments
13.15 – 13.25	Opening Address and housekeeping	Dr Rebecca Stratford, National Cancer Research Institute
	Chair – Dr Brian Clark, onCore UK
13.25 - 13.45	The work of the NCRI Task Force on Pathology & Research	Prof David Levison, Chair NCRI Task Force
13.45 – 14.05	The impact of guidance on regulation and governance on the ability and willingness of pathologists to conduct research	Dr Brian Clark, onCore UK
14.05 - 14.25	Ethical review of diagnostic archives as biobanks - policy and procedure	Dr Nalin Thakker, National Research Ethics Service
14.25 – 14.45	Enhancing the participation of pathologists in research through communication and education	Prof Simon Herrington, Pathological Society
14.45 – 15.05	Research in Pathology in the context of routine services	Dr Ian Barnes, National Pathology Director, Department of Health (England)
15.05 – 15.30	Discussion and Wrap up	Prof David Levison, Chair NCRI Task Force
15.30 – 16.00	Refreshments and Networking	